Scarsdale Medical Group Welcomes New Endocrinologist

Harrison, NY – Scarsdale Medical Group (SMG), a multi-specialty practice serving Westchester and Fairfield Counties and the surrounding Hudson Valley area, is pleased to announce the appointment of endocrinologist Rachel Steinman. Dr. Steinman will begin seeing patients on September 6th in the Harrison office located at 600 Mamaroneck Avenue.

Dr. Steinman graduated summa cum laude from Barnard College where she was elected to Phi Beta Kappa. She received her medical degree from the University of Rochester School of Medicine. Dr. Steinman completed her internship and residency in internal medicine at the University of Maryland Medical Center where she remained for a fellowship in endocrinology, diabetes and nutrition. She was the recipient of several awards including The Endocrine Society Medical Student Achievement Award and the Gold Humanism Honor Society Award. She participated in diabetes research while at the University of Maryland Medical Center and contributed to a number of publications in the field of endocrinology.

“We are happy to welcome Dr. Steinman to Scarsdale Medical Group,” says managing partner Dr. Kenneth Croen. “Her expertise in the treatment of a variety of endocrine disorders will be an asset to our practice and the residents in our community.”

Dr. Steinman specializes in the diagnosis and treatment of endocrine disorders including type 1 and type 2 diabetes and diseases of the thyroid, pituitary and adrenal glands. She is dedicated to devising personalized treatment plans for each of her patients.

Dr. Steinman joins endocrinologists Marvin Lipman, MD, David Bloomgarden, MD and Jamie Mandac, MD. To make an appointment call 914-723-8100.
